COMETHING NEW.—THE WISEACRES WHO SURrounded Columbus knew well enough how to make the egg stand on its point after the adventurous navigator had practically exhibited to them the methed; and we have no doubt that other establishments than George Christy & Wood's dinstreis, 444 Broadway, will consider it a very simple matter to produce "Uncle Tom" in operatic form.
In this, however, if they should attempt it, they will find their mistake, for there is not a house in the world where it could be put upon the stage as it is at the above establishment, where crowds of our most woulthy and influential citizens nightly congregate to witness its representation, and who depart filled with grateful recollections of the touching appeals, entivening mirthfulness, and soul-thrilling melody contained in it.

U. NCLE TOM AS AN OPERA.—THE SUCCESS OF such an undertaking as the above on its first announcement at George Christy & Wood's Minstrols, 444 Broadway, was considered by some persons extremely problematical; but the very first hight of its representation set every doubt of its complete triumph at rest, for it was received with perfect thunders of appliance. The versatile Geo. Ceristy as Tepps satonished everylody, and the public would not now be surprised at his attempting anything in the comic line within the whole scope of the drama. His Toppy is allowed on all hands to be the most perfect representation of that part ever at tempted, and this has been the vertiletof thousands of discrimitating persons who have witnessed it since its first representation. It was though! long since that George had reached the very some of excellence in his profession, but every once in a will be abakes out another link, and there is no telling what he is not capable of as a delineator of negro eccentricities.
